

Symposium & HOW TO DAAO Workshop

Art Gallery of NSW Research Library and Archive Monday 15 June 2015

Presented by Contemporary Art and Feminism, Art Gallery of NSW Research Library and Archive and Dictionary of Design and Art Online (DAAO)

Future Feminist Archive Symposium, 11-12pm, Library

With Macushla Robinson, curator of See you at the Barricades AGNSW (opening 29 May), Jesmond Calleja, Collection Systems Manager AGNSW, Gillian Fuller, UNSW NIEA, Art & Design & Eric Riddler, AGNSW Archive. Convened by Jo Holder, The Cross Art Projects and CAF and Steven Miller, Head Library Services AGNSW.

Despite its generative, game-changing force, has Feminism experienced a history of institutional neglect? For the 40th Anniversary of International Women's Year, Future Feminist Archive brings together artists, archivists, filmmakers, curators, collection managers and art historians to discuss ways to recover lost Feminist archives, stock-take the existing and imagine the new. Future Feminist Archive and the DAAO are undertaking a series of regional case studies, residencies and symposia around NSW. A report back will contribute to a final symposium in the first week of March 2016.

How to DAAO Workshop, 12.30-3.30pm with Dr Gillian Fuller

DAAO is one of the biggest data research projects in Australian visual culture. What is the difference between structured and unstructured data and how do generous big data sets work? Learn how to use it and how to make your research visible. Your research will contribute to Australia's leading research and collection institutions.

In less than one hour you can work the DAAO for yourself or institution

The DAAO dataset of records for Australian artists, designers and curators, exhibitions, works and collections grows daily. This collaborative e-Research tool and database is built upon the foundations of Joan Kerr's Dictionary of Australian Artists and Heritage: The National Women's Art Book and Vivien Johnson's Dictionary of Western Desert Artists.

Help investigate the many forms that a Future Feminist Archive might take – real and virtual, activist action!
