

GREEN BANS ART WALK

Big Fag Press & The Cross Art Projects

Image: Mick Fowler's home at 115 Victoria Street, The Little Green Book. The Facts on Green Bans', Victoria St Residents' Action Group, 1973.

6-27 Aug

Guided Walks:

Departing from Firstdraft Depot
Sat & Sun 6 & 7 Aug, 12noon
Sat 20 Aug, 2:30pm

Departing from the Cross Art Projects
Sat & Sun 6 & 7 Aug, 2:30pm
Sat 13 & 20 Aug, 2:30pm

Firstdraft Depot

13-17 Riley Street, Woolloomooloo

The Cross Art Projects

Llankelly Lane, Kings Cross

This is a FREE event. Bookings essential.
RSVP at performancespace.com.au

A collaboration between Big Fag Press, The Cross Art Projects, Firstdraft Depot, Fiona MacDonald and locals from Woolloomooloo and Kings Cross, Green Bans Art Walk restores the excitement and struggle of 1970s Woolloomooloo, Darlinghurst and Kings Cross. The project comprises two exhibitions, a public guided walk and an on-going self-guided walk for those who want to learn more about the international phenomenon of the Green Bans and how they revolutionised urban planning and ideas.

Green Bans Art Walk is a WALK project. WALK is Performance Space's season of walks, promenades, marches and strolls in and around Sydney and beyond. View the full walk program at performancespace.com.au

Exhibiting and contributing artists: Louise Anderson, Pat Armstrong, Michelle Blakeney, Diego Bonetto, Josie Cavallero and Anne Kay, Alan Davies, Margel Hinder, Jo Holder, Fiona MacDonald, Marion Marrison, Mini Graff and Joe Szabo.

Maps for self-guided walks are available at both venues.
Exhibition hours: 11am-6pm, Thu-Sat, 6-27 Aug

Green Bans Art Walk is part of Sydney Design 2011, Powerhouse Museum, Sydney.
It is supported by the Awesome Foundation and is part of Weekend@Firstdraft Depot.

Communities
arts nsw

▶▶ The Awesome Foundation

