March 7, 79

Burelli

Late night shopping traffic will be held up tomorrow evening when women stage their first ever International Women's Day march in WOLLONGONG.

Up to four hundred women are expected to join the march which will start at five thirty from LANG PARK.

After marching down CROWN, KEIRA and BURELLI Streets the women will hold a rally in McCABE PARK.

They'll be entertained by singer PIP PORTER, local and SYDNEY poets and a women's puppet theatre.

The WOLLONGONG Unemployed People's Movement and the Non-Sexist ~~xxx~~ Resources Centre will present street theatre.

The rally will highlight current issues affecting women.
